Terms of Service

Just In Reality, LLC, operating Grand Theft Clipping. Version 1.3, effective November 17, 2026.

1. Agreement to these terms

These Terms of Service (the "Terms") are a binding agreement between you and Just In Reality, LLC ("Just In Reality, LLC", "we", "us" or "our"). Just In Reality, LLC operates Grand Theft Clipping at grandtheftclipping.com (the "Service"). "Grand Theft Clipping" and "Rich Money Minds" are names Just In Reality, LLC uses for the Service and for its channels; wherever the Service uses either name, it means Just In Reality, LLC.

By ticking the acceptance boxes at sign-up, by creating an account, or by using the Service, you agree to these Terms and to the following documents, which are part of these Terms: the Privacy Policy, the Subscription, Cancellation and Refund Policy, the Copyright and DMCA Policy, and the Content and Rights Acknowledgement. Streamers who join the Streamer Network also agree to the Streamer Network Terms.

If you do not agree, do not create an account and do not use the Service.

2. Electronic signature and records

You agree that ticking the acceptance boxes and typing your name at sign-up is your electronic signature, and that it has the same legal effect as signing on paper. You agree to receive these Terms, notices and other records from us electronically.

We keep a record of the version you accepted, the date and time, the name and email you gave, and the IP address and browser used. You can download a copy of that record and of the documents you accepted from your account page at any time.

3. Who can use the Service

You must be at least 18 years old and able to enter a binding contract. If you use the Service for a company or other organisation, you confirm that you have authority to accept these Terms for it, and "you" includes that organisation.

You must give accurate sign-up information and keep it up to date. One person per account. Keep your password private. You are responsible for everything done through your account, and you must tell us promptly if you believe someone else has used it.

4. What the Service does

You give the Service video, either by uploading a file or by giving it a link to a stream recording. Software finds moments in that video and produces short vertical clips, cover images, and suggested titles, captions and hashtags. You then download or share those files yourself.

The Service is a tool. We do not post to your accounts, and we are not the publisher or speaker of anything you post. Separately, we may repost clips made with the Service on channels that we run ourselves. Section 7 explains that permission.

5. Your content belongs to you, not to us

"Your Content" means the footage you upload or link, and the clips, covers and text the Service produces from it for you.

Just In Reality, LLC claims no ownership of Your Content. As between you and us, Your Content is yours. It remains subject to the rights of others, such as the owner of the game, the streamer who made the broadcast, the owners of any music in it, and the people who appear or speak in it.

6. Your promises about your content

Each time you upload or link footage, and each time you start a job, you confirm that:

- you recorded the footage yourself, or you have the consent of its owner to copy it, edit it and publish clips made from it;
- you have any consent needed from people who appear or speak in it;
- your use follows the rules of the game publisher, of the platform the footage came from, and of every platform you post to;
- the footage and your use of it are lawful and do not infringe or violate anyone's copyright, trademark, privacy, publicity or other rights;
- the footage is not leaked, stolen or obtained in breach of a confidentiality duty;
- you hold the rights needed to give us the permissions in section 7, including the permission to repost your clips on our channels; and
- you are the person managing these videos, and you decide what is made from them and what you post on your own accounts.

7. The permissions you give us, including reposting on our channels

Running the Service. You give us a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free licence to store, copy, process, transmit and display Your Content so that we can run the Service for you. That includes sending a few still frames to our AI provider to write captions.

Reposting on our channels. On every plan, free or paid, you also give us a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free licence to copy, edit, publish and promote the clips you make with the Service on channels that we operate, such as our accounts on YouTube, TikTok, Instagram, Facebook and X, and on grandtheftclipping.com. Editing includes adding a credit line, trimming, and writing a new title, caption and cover. The platforms that host those channels may store and show the clips under their own terms.

This is how reposting works:

- We credit the clip to your public handle, if you have set one, and to the streamer when the clip comes from a streamer's broadcast.
- We choose which clips to repost, if any. We do not have to repost anything.
- You are not paid for a repost, and you have no share in anything a repost earns.
- There is no setting to turn this off. If you do not agree, do not use the Service.
- You confirm that you hold the rights needed to give us this permission, including any permission needed from the streamer whose broadcast the clip comes from.

- We keep our own copy of a clip we may repost. That copy can be kept longer than the clip retention on your plan.
- For a clip we have already reposted, this licence continues after your files are deleted from the Service and after your account closes. We stop making new reposts of your clips when your account closes.

If you, a streamer or any other rights holder wants a repost taken down, use the Copyright and DMCA Policy. We take a repost down when we receive a valid request.

We do not sell your footage, and we do not use it to train AI models.

8. You manage and are responsible for what you post

We do not review or approve your footage or your clips before you get them. You alone decide what you post on your own accounts and where, and you alone are responsible for it. That includes copyright claims, takedowns, strikes, demonetisation, account restrictions or bans, and any dispute with a streamer, publisher, platform, campaign or other person.

Just In Reality, LLC and Grand Theft Clipping take no responsibility for Your Content or for anything that happens after you download, share or post it. A repost on our channels under section 7 relies on the promises you make in section 6, and does not move responsibility for the rights in the clip from you to us.

9. Streamer directory and Streamer Network

The Service shows a directory of streamers who broadcast the game, using information that is already public, such as a channel name, a link, a profile image and public statistics. A listing does not mean the streamer is affiliated with us, endorses us, or has given anyone permission to clip their broadcasts.

Streamers marked "Network" have accepted the Streamer Network Terms and allow clips to be made from their public broadcasts on the conditions shown on their page, such as how to credit them. If you clip a Network streamer you must follow those conditions. Network streamers also allow us to repost clips of their broadcasts on our own channels, with credit.

For any streamer who is not marked "Network", you need that streamer's permission, or another lawful basis, before you clip and post their broadcast. Confirming the rights box when you start a job is your statement that you have it.

We are not a party to any arrangement between you and a streamer. We do not promise that any streamer's permission will continue; streamers can change their conditions, leave the network or ask to be removed at any time.

If you are a streamer and want to claim, correct or remove your listing, email support@grandtheftclipping.com. We remove listings on request.

10. Other companies' platforms and connected channels

The Service works with footage from, and files meant for, platforms run by other companies, including Twitch, Kick, TikTok, YouTube, Instagram, Facebook and X. We are not affiliated with any of them. Their terms apply to your use of their services, including their rules about downloading, re-using and monetising content. Following those rules is your responsibility.

Features that depend on another company's platform can change or stop working without notice if that company changes its service.

Connected channels. You can connect a channel you control on another platform, starting with YouTube, so that a clip can be posted to it from the Service. Connecting is optional. You must own the channel or be authorised to manage it.

We post to a connected channel only when you press the post button for that clip, to the channel shown, with the title, description and visibility shown to you at that moment. We do not post, change or delete anything on your channel on our own. Reposts under section 7 are a separate thing: they go to our channels, never to yours.

Everything posted to your channel through the Service is your post. You are responsible for it in the same way as if you had uploaded it yourself, as section 8 says.

The Service uses YouTube API Services to connect and post to YouTube. By connecting a YouTube channel, or posting to one through the Service, you agree to be bound by the YouTube Terms of Service (https://www.youtube.com/t/terms).

We store the sign-in that lets us post in encrypted form. You can disconnect a channel at any time on your account page, which withdraws our access and deletes our copy of the sign-in. You can also remove our access on Google's security settings page (https://security.google.com/settings/security/permissions). The Privacy Policy describes what we store.

The platforms limit how many videos the Service may upload each day across all of its users, so posting can be unavailable at times. Other platforms are added only once that platform has approved our app.

11. AI suggestions and warnings

Titles, captions, hashtags, cover text and warnings such as "graphic in the first seconds" or "possible spoiler" are generated automatically. They can be wrong, incomplete or unsuitable. A missing warning is not a statement that a clip is safe, allowed, or eligible for advertising. Check everything before you post it.

12. Not affiliated with any game publisher

Grand Theft Clipping is an independent tool from Rich Money Minds. It is not affiliated with, endorsed by, or sponsored by Rockstar Games or Take-Two Interactive. Grand Theft Auto is a trademark of Take-Two Interactive Software, Inc.

Game names, characters and other marks belong to their owners and are used only to describe what the Service is for.

13. No promise of views, earnings or results

We do not run clipping campaigns, verify views, or pay creators, and we do not pay for clips we repost. We make no promise about views, followers, payouts, income or any other result. Rankings, points and streaks shown in the Service are for fun, have no cash value and cannot be exchanged for anything.

14. Plans, billing and cancelling

Paid plans are subscriptions billed in advance, monthly or yearly, through our payment processor, Stripe. They renew automatically until you cancel. You can cancel at any time from your account page, and your plan stays active until the end of the period you have already paid for.

The full rules, including refunds, failed payments and price changes, are in the Subscription, Cancellation and Refund Policy, which is part of these Terms.

15. Acceptable use

You must not:

- upload or link unlawful content, leaked or stolen footage, or content you have no right to use;
- use the Service to harass, threaten, defame or impersonate anyone, or to make sexual content involving a real person without consent;
- try to access other users' files or accounts, or get around plan limits or security measures;
- overload, probe, scrape or reverse engineer the Service, or use it to attack or abuse another service;
- resell or share access to your account; or
- use the Service in breach of any law, or of export control or sanctions rules.

We may remove content and suspend or close accounts that break these Terms.

16. Copyright complaints

We respond to valid copyright notices and close the accounts of repeat infringers. The Copyright and DMCA Policy explains how to send a notice or a counter-notice.

17. Storage and deletion

Uploaded source video is deleted when its job finishes. Clips are kept for a limited time (3 days on Free, 30 days on Pro, 60 days on Crew) and are then deleted. Download what you want to keep. The Service is not a backup service and we are not responsible for files deleted under this section. Copies we keep for our own channels under section 7 are stored separately and follow the Privacy Policy.

18. Our rights in the Service

The Service, including its software, design, text and branding, belongs to Just In Reality, LLC or its licensors and is protected by law. We give you a personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the Service while these Terms are in force. Nothing in these Terms gives you ownership of any part of the Service.

If you send us feedback or ideas, we may use them without any obligation to you.

19. Suspension and ending the agreement

You can stop using the Service at any time and ask us to delete your account by emailing us. We can suspend or end your access if you break these Terms, if your payment fails or is charged back, if we are required to by law, or if we stop offering the Service. If we end a paid plan for a reason other than your breach, we will refund the unused part of the period you paid for.

Sections 5 to 8, 12, 13 and 18 to 26 continue to apply after the agreement ends.

20. The Service is provided as is

THE SERVICE IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE". TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THE LAW ALLOWS, JUST IN REALITY, LLC DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT. WE DO NOT PROMISE THAT THE SERVICE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED, SECURE OR ERROR-FREE, THAT IT WILL FIND EVERY MOMENT WORTH CLIPPING, OR THAT ANY CLIP WILL BE ACCEPTED, SHOWN OR MONETISED BY ANY PLATFORM.

21. Limit of liability

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THE LAW ALLOWS, JUST IN REALITY, LLC AND ITS OWNERS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND CONTRACTORS ARE NOT LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR FOR LOST PROFITS, REVENUE, VIEWS, FOLLOWERS, ACCOUNTS, GOODWILL OR DATA, HOWEVER CAUSED AND EVEN IF WE WERE TOLD THEY WERE POSSIBLE.

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THE LAW ALLOWS, OUR TOTAL LIABILITY FOR ALL CLAIMS ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO THE SERVICE OR THESE TERMS IS LIMITED TO THE GREATER OF (A) THE AMOUNT YOU PAID US IN THE THREE MONTHS BEFORE THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM AND (B) USD $50.

Some places do not allow some of these exclusions or limits, so parts of this section may not apply to you. Nothing in these Terms limits liability that cannot be limited by law.

22. You cover claims caused by your content

You agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Just In Reality, LLC and its owners, officers, employees and contractors from and against any claim, demand, loss, liability, damage or cost (including reasonable legal fees) arising from or relating to Your Content (including clips we repost under section 7), what you post or share, your use of another person's broadcast, your breach of these Terms, or your breach of any law or of anyone's rights.

23. Disputes between you and other people

Any dispute you have with a streamer, a game publisher, a platform, a campaign operator or another user is between you and them. To the fullest extent the law allows, you release Just In Reality, LLC from claims and damages arising from those disputes.

24. Governing law and disputes with us

Talk to us first. Before starting any formal proceeding, you agree to email support@grandtheftclipping.com describing the problem, and to give us 30 days to try to resolve it with you.

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict-of-law rules. Any claim that is not resolved informally must be brought in the state and federal courts located in Delaware, and you and we consent to the jurisdiction of those courts.

To the fullest extent the law allows, claims may be brought only on an individual basis and not as a plaintiff or class member in any class, collective or representative proceeding, and you and we each waive any right to a trial by jury.

To the fullest extent the law allows, any claim relating to the Service or these Terms must be filed within one year after the claim arose.

25. Changes

We may change the Service, and we may update these Terms. If a change to the Terms is material we will tell you by email or in the Service before it takes effect, and we may ask you to accept the new version before you continue. If you do not agree to a change, stop using the Service and cancel any paid plan.

26. General

These Terms, with the documents listed in section 1, are the whole agreement between you and us about the Service and replace any earlier agreement. If a court finds part of these Terms unenforceable, the rest stays in force. If we do not enforce a term, that is not a waiver of it. You may not transfer your rights under these Terms without our written consent; we may transfer ours as part of a sale or reorganisation of the business. Neither of us is liable for failure caused by events outside our reasonable control. These Terms do not create a partnership, agency or employment relationship. Notices to you may be sent to the email address on your account.
